

Curriculum

Erik Maehle

Institute of Computer Engineering

Curriculum Vitae

1951 Born in Siegen, Germany

1977 Diploma in Computer Science (Informatics) from University of Erlangen-Nuernberg, Germany

1977-1982 Research Assistant at IMMD III (Institute for Mathematical Machines and Data Processing) of University of Erlangen-Nuernberg (Advisor: Prof. Haendler)

1982 Dr.-Ing. in Computer Science from University of Erlangen-Nuernberg (Topic of thesis: Fault-Tolerant Multiprocessor Systems)

1982-1983 Postdoc at IBM Research Laboratories, Zurich, Switzerland

1983-1987 Research Assistant at IMMD III, University of Erlangen-Nuernberg

1987-1989 Professor of Practical Computer Science, University of Augsburg, Germany

1989-1994 Professor of Computer Engineering, University of Paderborn, Germany

1992 Visiting Scientist at IBM Research Laboratories, Zurich, Switzerland

since 1994 Professor of Computer Engineering (Technical Informatics), University of Luebeck, Director of Institute of Computer Engineering

1998-2000 Dean of the Faculty of Technical and Natural Sciences

2001 Visiting Scientist at IBM Research Laboratories, Zurich, Switzerland

2004-2009 Subject Area Editor: Journal of Systems Architecture, Elsevier

2006-2012 Speaker GI Specialist Area 'Computer Engineering', Member GI Presidency

2006-2011 Vice-Chair IFIP WG 10.3 'Concurrent Systems'

2010-2016 Member of Editorial Board of Microprocessors and Microsystems, Elsevier

2011-2012 Chair IFIP WG 10.3 'Concurrent Systems'

since 2012 Vice-Speaker GI Specialist Area 'Computer Engineering'

2012-2016 Vice-Chair IFIP WG 10.3 'Concurrent Systems'

since 2013 Fellow of the GI